CHAMBER BUDGET GAINING SUPPORT

The city budget for the Chamber of Commerce, a request for an auction permit for the Del Tahquitz Hotel furnishings, consideration of the sewer services extension policy, and discussion of an advertisement in an out-of-town newspaper which alleged the proposed city budget failed to list the $62,500 lease price for the Palm Springs Golf Course site were major items on the lunch-agenda of the City Council's informal Monday meeting.

Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper and President William Smith both spoke in favor of an increase over the $74,000 budgeted last year for city support of Chamber operations.

COOPER TOLD the council members that the chamber's brochures and the demands on the convention and tourist bureau were prime areas of increased needs. He discussed possible aid from hotels receiving most Palm Springs conventions in defraying convention bureau costs, but explained that brochure requirements are now approximately 50,000 copies per year.

Cooper estimated an additional $8,000 would be needed to meet the printing demands. He told

'57 Fox Bout 'Fixed,' Says Jake LaMotta

Ex-Champion Tells Senate Probers of 'Rigged' Match

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former middleweight champion Jake LaMotta, with a death threat from the underworld hanging over his head, told Senate investigators today his 1947 fight loss to Billy Fox was "fixed."

LaMotta testified that he was "play acting" when the referee stopped the Madison Square Garden bout in the 4th round and gave the victory to Fox on a TKO.

GRIM-FACED and tight-lipped, LaMotta said he took the dive in exchange for a promise that "something might be arranged" to give him a shot at the middleweight crown.

LaMotta said he had been offered $100,000 earlier to throw the fight, but had refused.

LaMotta was subpoenaed as the opening witness in the long-awaited investigation of boxing by the Senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee. Before he took the stand, it was reported that an underworld figure had threatened his life.

THE RACKETEER WAS said to have warned LaMotta in a telephone call that he would be "hit in the head" if he talked freely to the investigators.

Third hearing is on the application of Doris O'Hara and T. S. Tedesco for a zone change from R-1a to R-2 for parcels one and six in Section three.

Bid Opening Set For Chino Creek Bridge Project

SAN BERNARDINO — Bids will be opened in the District Office of the State Division of Highways here on July 5 for replacing the Chino Creek Bridge on the north roadbed of State Sign Route 111 near the north city limit of the City of Palm Springs, according to Clyde V. Kane, District Engineer.

The existing bridge was constructed in 1914 and rebuilt in 1935.

Traffic normally routed on the westbound roadbed will be routed over the eastbound roadbed during the five weeks the contractor will be allowed to complete all work on this job.

A total of $18,000 has been provided in the State Highways budget for removing the existing bridge and installing the double culvert.

MANILA (UPI) — A wildly enthusiastic crowd of almost 2 million Filipinos welcomed President Eisenhower to this pro-American island republic with frenzied joy today at the start of his two-week tour of Asia.

The President opened his visit with a promise that no "petty differences" ever would divide the Philippines and the United States. He assured the peoples of the Far East that any difficulties among true allies can be negotiated in peaceful partnership.

Powers Writes Wife He May Face Death Rap

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (UPI) — U-2 spy plane pilot Francis G. Powers wrote his wife from a Russian prison that he faces from seven years imprisonment to death for flights over the Soviet Union. But he told his pretty wife in the largely personal letter that he still hopes to build their dream house in the United States.

Mrs. Barbara Gay Powers, 24, related parts of the letter through her physician, Dr. James Baugh, at a press conference in this quiet Georgia town. She did not appear.

Powers said in the letter, received by Mrs. Powers May 31, that "he has no idea of his fate," Baugh said.

Powers urged his wife to visit him in Russia but said it would do more good to have his wife and other relatives by him during and after his trial than now, Baugh said. Baugh said Powers wrote that Soviet authorities had told him any of his relatives would be welcome.

Starting July 5 Major Expansion Set for Riviera

A major expansion and renovation program for the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel, the Village's newest major hotel, will be launched on July 5, it was learned here today.

The project will be completed prior to the Labor Day holiday in September.

FROM PLANS NOW being readied by Homer Rissman, A. I. A., original architect for the hotel, the following major alterations are programmed in the expansion move:

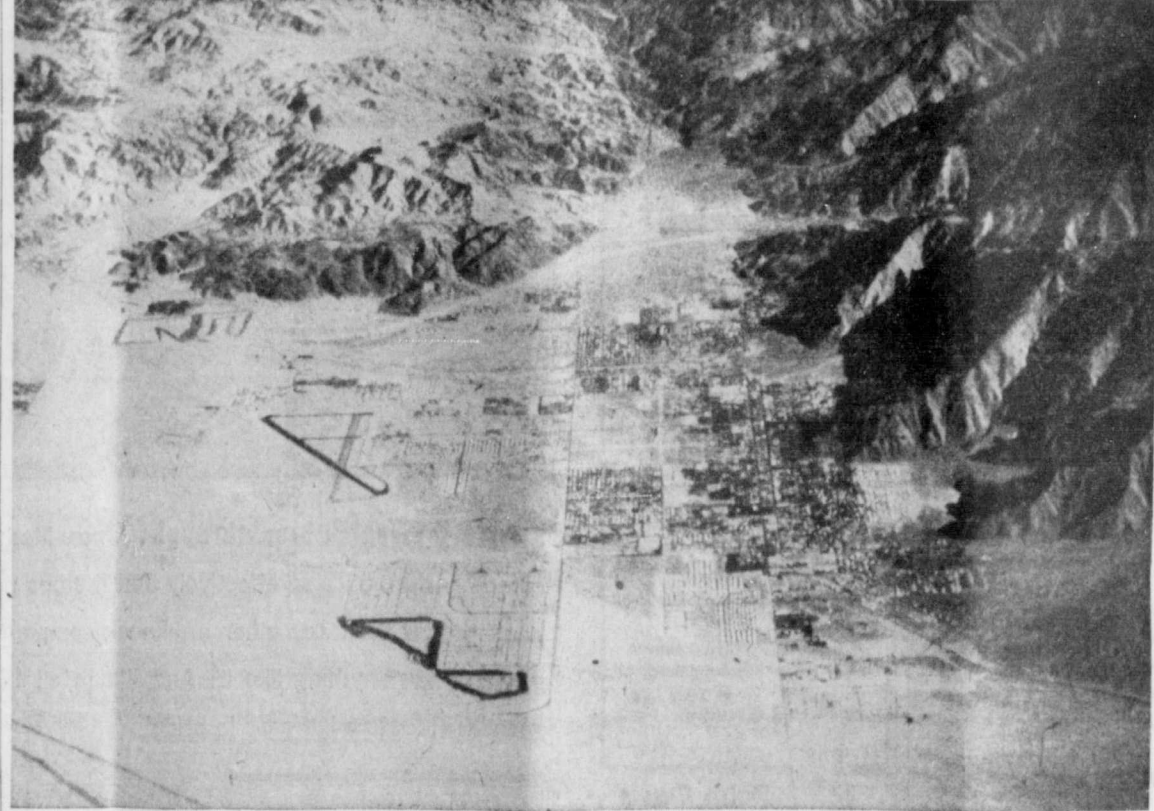

— The dining room, now one of the largest in Palm Springs, will be doubled in size.

— The bar, considered the most up-to-date of those now functioning here, will also be doubled in size.

— THE DANCING AREA, among the finest in the Village, will also be enlarged.

— The kitchen and adjoining areas will be realigned to provide maximum efficiency in preparation of meals not only for dining room patrons but for hotel guests.

The hotel's announcement designated Art Wright, superintendent of the original Riviera construction job, as superintendent of the expansion work.

CHP Issues Highway Tips For Vacations

Crittenden Tells Need for Safer Summer Driving

SACRAMENTO — "The summer vacation season is at hand and it is largely up to the individual motorist whether he and his family have safe, accident-free trips.

So says Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, who added:

"PEOPLE CAUSE accidents and they can prevent accidents if they will quit making driving mistakes. The mistakes may be something they do, like violating a traffic law, or they may be mistakes in judgment, like staying on the road until fatigue slows their reactions. Either way, the erring drivers cause needless injury or death to themselves and others."

The CHP head emphasized that in some 90 per cent of all death and injury accidents at least one driver violated a traffic law. Speed violations were the most numerous, followed by failure to yield the right of way. Other leading accident causing violations are improper turning, driving on the wrong side of the road and driving while intoxicated.

"THE PERSON best able to keep a driver out of trouble is the driver himself," Crittenden declared.

"He alone can control his actions, and if he uses defensive driving techniques every moment he is behind the wheel, he stands a good chance of getting home alive and unhurt."

CHECKING A GRASS ROOTS development on the Palm Springs High School campus are these three High School leaders who voted unanimous approval. Jo Rosine, student body vice-president, Dr. Charles Webster, principal, and Bill Ivey, student body president, compare a strip of the foot-wide sod, obtained from Thunbird Country Club, and the two-inch turf that has taken root in the area. The grass, planted south of the new library behind the classrooms cluster, now covers 20,000 square feet of a former open sand area. Dr. Webster termed the sodding one of the best and quickest improvement on the campus, enhancing appearance and reducing sand. Ivey, who graduated Friday evening with Jo Rosine and the other 1960 seniors, wished it could have been there when he was a freshman. (Desert Sun Photo.)

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, June 14, the 166th day of the year, with 200 more in 1960. Today is Flag Day. The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn. The evening star is Mercury.

On this day in history: In 1775, the U. S. Army was founded when Congress authorized recruiting 10 companies of riflemen to serve the colonies or one year.

In 1777, the Stars and Stripes became the national flag.

In 1811, Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," was born.

In 1926, George White's Scandals started New York tongues wagging when it introduced a naughty new dance . . . the Black Blot.

In 1949, the Legislature of Missouri adopted the "Missouri Waltz" as the official state song.

Thought for today: American writer Harriet Beecher Stowe said, in Uncle Tom's Cabin: "Whipping and abuse are like laudanum; you have to double the dose as the sensibilities decline."

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: My husband, who is with the Army in Germany, sent me a beautiful cuckoo clock. He paid $14 for it and said it would cost about $45 here. All his relatives who have seen it have gone wild over it and want one like it.

Maybe I am selfish but I don't want all his relatives to have the same cuckoo clock I have. It's the only thing in my house that isn't ordinary. Should I tell them I would rather tell them I got one? Or should I say, "O. K., go ahead?" They know how much it costs and that my husband can get it for them because, like a fool, I told them. Now what?

CUCKOO MYSELF

DEAR CUCKOO: Since you advertised the price and availability, you can't very well tell them you don't want them to have the cuckoo clocks (unless you want to be a dirty bird). The damage is done. Order the clocks and every time you visit a relative, the cuckoo will come out to remind you every 15 minutes how cuckoo you were for opening your beak.

DEAR ABBY: Is it often that a patient falls in love with her family physician, because I have fallen in love with mine. Ever since I have known him (three years) I have wanted desperately to kiss him. I don't know why, I'm sure I don't affect him the same way.

I would like to get this feeling over with. Would it be wrong to tell him how I feel about him? Or should I just try to forget it? I am 33 and married.

PATIENT

DEAR PATIENT: Love (the romantic kind) is a mutual thing. What you feel is undoubtedly gratitude and hero-worship, com-combined with the appeal of forbidden fruit. Don't embarrass him by revealing your feelings. If you can't overcome it — find another doctor (How about a woman?)

DEAR ABBY: I am writing this for the person who was in doubt about what kind of housework a man who is "all man" should do.

I am not bragging and I am

Photog Anderson May Have a Winner

By GEORGE LAINE

If you'd been thinking that there are more pretty women in Palm Springs than the average community is entitled to have, the chances are that you're not as much a minority as you thought.

There ARE a lot of beautiful young ladies gracing our Desert landscapes.

SOMETIME BEFORE June 25, one of them — one of four entered from this region — has a pretty fair chance of grabbing off the Miss Photogenic title offered up each year by the Professional Photographers of California.

The four entered from Palm Springs are Sheila O'Byrne, Karol Markley, Patti O'Quinn and Gloria Neil and they'd any of 'em make a great Miss Photogenic for 1960.

How they happened to wind up in this thing is one of those crazy happenstances that occur with studied regularity here.

BILL ANDERSON, for 10 years one of this town's best photogs, is the local representative for the PPC. In his normal fashion — that is, without a great deal of hoop-la or fol-de-rol — Anderson announced that the contest was coming up and would any girls interested contact him, please.

So Anderson wound up with the four lovely ladies whose pictures appear on this page today. You couldn't hand-pick four more likely candidates.

In a way, you almost expect it from Anderson. He's had a reputation in this town of making exceptional pictures of commonplace occurrence and superlative shots a habit.

IN THE 10 YEARS he's been holed up here in the Village, Bill has handled virtually every major club and hotel and has had the

Racquet Club as a permanent account for that total period of time. (He was also the "official" Chamber of Commerce photog for half of those 10 years.)

The four pictures to the right of this column will tell you more that I can about the dexterity of Anderson behind his camera. Each captures the subject and returns a personable, picture-story of the candidate.

Pictures like these four simply do not happen by chance.

ANDERSON HAS been enmeshed in his profession for half of his 36 years. He followed his graduation at Los Angeles Poly High with a later tutelage at that metropolis' well-rated Art Center School. (In fact, Bill was one of the initial handful of photographers in this nation to receive his BA in photography.)

I'd be tickled to death — If I were a member of the PP C's brass — to have any of these four girls crowned Miss Photogenic of 1960. And, like I said, we'll know along about the end of next week whether or not one of the foursome prevailed.

In any event, we'll know they've had the asset of Bill's excellent camera as a sendoff. And in case they don't win, they can all come down to The Desert Sun where they will each be awarded consolation prizes as Miss, Better Than Miss Photogenic of 1960.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Tonight is, lemme see now, chicken night at the Hilltop. It is also "Hooray for Pepe" night at the Biltmore — by popular demand — and "I Remember the Chi Chi Last Summer Night" at Mills Liquor Store.

Sure was gloomy at the Beachcomber the other night... Last night for the place — and they were jammed... It's one of the few places in town Tina can get two cherries in her Shirley Temples... We'll just have to wait until October... Check the data on the Riviera revisions on Page 1 today... That'll do it...

Ancient Homes in Film

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — One of the forthcoming Buena Vista releases, Walt Disney's "Pollyanna," has selected two historical California homes for the filming.

One is the now-deserted Stag's Leap, an ancient house in the Napa Valley, and the other in the still-occupied home of Mrs. Julliard McDonald, about 40 miles west of Stag's Leap, near Santa Rosa, Calif. They were selected because they would best portray architecture prevalent in the eastern United States during the early 1900's.

DISNEYLAND OPENS NEW ATTRACTION, STARTS NEW HOURS

ANAHEIM (UP) — A new attraction, borrowed from the great outdoors, was operating at Disneyland today when the popular tourist attraction began its summer season.

Walt Disney presided at special ceremonies Sunday for the new ride, entitled "Nature's Wonderland," a mine train jaunt through man-made "country" taken from Disney's numerous nature films. Animated beavers, bears and deer were featured in the scenery.

"I won't live forever," Disney said, "But as long as I am alive we'll keep making changes down here in the magic kingdom."

Broadway Lights Up Again After 11-Day Strike

NEW YORK (UP) — Curtains went up on Broadway last night for the first time in 11 days.

Nineteen of 22 plays and musicals playing when the Broadway blackout began June 2 were scheduled to resume.

Three closed during the 11-day mass theater shutdown which climaxed a bitter contract dispute between Actors Equity and the League of New York Theaters.

The dispute, was settled last Thursday when actors and producers approved a new four-year contract agreement reached by their negotiators. But producers decided to wait until last night before resuming operations.

About 10,000 communities in the United States have some kind of industrial fall-out or air pollution problem, according to the U.S. Public Health Service.

American Legion, 1923

When you see the Stars and Stripes displayed, son, stand up and take off your hat. Somebody may titter. It is in the blood of some to deride all expression of noble sentiment. You may blame blasphemy in the street and stagger drunken in public places, and the bystanders will not pay much attention to you; but if you should get down on your knees and pray to Almighty God or if you should stand bareheaded while a company of old soldiers marches by with flags to the breeze, some people will think you are showing off.

But don't you mind! When Old Glory comes along, salute, and let them think what they please! When you hear the band play "The Star Spangled Banner" while you are in a restaurant or hotel dining room, get up even if you rise alone; stand there and don't be ashamed of it, either!

For all the signs and symbols since the world began there is none other so full of meaning as the flag of this country. That piece of red, white and blue bunting means five thousand years of struggle upward. It is the full grown flower of the plant of ages of human hope in bloom.

Your flag stands for humanity, for equal opportunity to all the sons of men. Of course we haven't arrived yet at that goal; there are many injustices yet among us, many senseless and cruel customs of the past still clinging to us, but the only hope of righting the wrong of men lies in the feeling produced in our bosoms by the sight of that flag.

Other flags mean a glorious past, this flag a glorious future. It is not so much the flag of our fathers as it is the flag of our children, and of all children's children yet unborn. It is the flag of tomorrow. It is the signal of the "Good Time Coming." It is not the flag of your king—it is the flag of yourself and of your neighbors.

Don't be ashamed when your heart chokes and the tears come, as you see it flying from the masts of our ships on all the seas or floating from every flag-staff of the Republic. You will never have a worthier emotion. Reverence it as you would the signature of the Diety.

Listen son! The band is playing the National Anthem . . . "The Star Spangled Banner!" They have let loose Old Glory yonder. Stand up — and others will stand with you.

Flood of Memories for Ike

NEW YORK — When President Eisenhower visits Manila it is bound to bring to mind a flood of memories of his tour of duty there, nearly a quarter of a century ago as aide and abettor to Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Ike was a major. He had impressed MacArthur with the way he explained the army's position to newsmen covering the Bonus Riots of 1932 in Washington. Sympathy lay mainly with the depression-racked veterans of World War I and their families who had poured into the slattern slums of the capital to plead for money and/or a chance to work.

In the end, MacArthur, with Maj. Eisenhower at his side, had the rough task of running the veterans out of Washington.

WHEN MACARTHUR retired as chief of staff, Dec. 15, 1935, he was a discouraged man. His attempts to awaken congress to the need of a better defensive posture had resulted only in vilification of himself. Nobody would listen to such instances of his prescience as was evident in his last report to secretary of war Dern.

"The successful army of the future must be highly mechanized, supplied with fast tanks, armored cars and airplanes, and able to shift fronts with devastating speed. This army must have highly effective rapid-fire weapons capable of furious attack. The day of trench warfare along practically static fronts, as experienced in the World War, has ended . . ."

He asked to be retired. He was 35.

BUT MANUEL QUEZON (who long before had been a hot-blooded insurrectionist quelled by MacArthur's father in the Philippine insurrection) had become President of the newly formed Commonwealth of the Philippines. He asked President Roosevelt to assign the retiring chief of staff to Manila to form a Filipino Armed Force, and F.D.R. was able to talk MacArthur into it. MacArthur accepted with the provision that Maj. Eisenhower also be assigned — and this, too, was done.

With the assistance of the Major, MacArthur set up a miniature West Point in the Philippines, a score of obsolete airplanes for an air force (in the course of which Eisenhower learned to fly), and put together a Philippine Navy made up largely of PT-boats.

IN TIME, MAJ. Eisenhower was advanced to Lt. Col. Eisenhower, on MacArthur's recommendation. But Ike was growing restless with the pomp and circumstance of these doings in the Islands. Quezon, for example, appointed MacArthur a Field Marshal of the Commonwealth Army on Aug. 24, 1936, and after Mrs. Quezon handed him his gold baton MacArthur responded:

"The baton from the twilight days of antiquity has symbolized the creed of the Soldier. It's code — the Military Code — has come down to us from even before the age of knighthood and chivalry . . . the soldier, above all other men, is required to perform the highest act of religious teaching — sacrifice . . . However horrible the incidents of war may be, the soldier who is called upon to offer and to give his life for his country is one of the noblest developments of mankind. I do not know the dignity of his birth, but I do know the glory of his death."

LT. COL. EISENHOWER requested transfer after MacArthur retired from the U.S. Army and took full authority as a field marshal in the Philippine Forces. There has since been a legend that this act was the beginning of the frostiness between the pair, but years later Eisenhower told me that they parted on the most friendly terms. "Jean and the old General came down to the pier to see Mamie and me off, the day we left," he recalled. "That wasn't the act of a busy man if he was angry, would you say?"

Eisenhower had smelled a war coming in Europe. He didn't want to miss it, as circumstances had made him miss the one before it. MacArthur smelled one coming up in the Pacific. Both good men were right.

Obnoxious? Well—

Burning a Hole in His Pocket

This Side of The Sun By Phat

You prate of the violence That is shown on TV, While news in the papers Is disturbing to me.

That is a reasonable version of a critical missive received from a lady who, in effect, asked: "Why hop on television for the type of shows our kids see when the front pages of the newspapers are not exactly soothing."

Well, all right. But a newspaper is a mirror of things that actually happen. Not dreamt up by a hungry script writer.

WHICH CAUSED ME to imagine what a newspaper would be like if patterned along the lines of TV shows.

For instance, our Mr. Fred C. Weigel is writing a story of a city council meeting.

Just as he is well under way slinging words, and comes to an exciting point; this appears: "Now for a word from our sponsor. Feeling headachy? Stomach upset? Muscular pain? Feel like something the cat dragged in? Then you need Bally-Ease. Recommended by five out of three doctors. So powerful that as you open the medicine cabinet to pour yourself a booster of Bally-Ease, your headache vanishes. Those muscular pains cease. The fire in your stomach is quenched. Arches return to your feet. For sale at all better service stations. Now to return to Weigel."

So the council story continues until another controversial issue is being warmly debated.

We now pause to bring you this message. Do people get up and move five seats away from you when you sit down in a bus? At a lunch counter? Then you need Citrag (pronounced Citrag). A powerful new deodorizer. Guaranteed to hide all body odors. Citrag is Gervil's secret. You won't even need to bathe if you go to your nearest municipal plant for a year's supply. Don't delay. You owe it to yourself and everybody near you. You'll soon become accustomed to that luscious feeling.

Now, I wouldn't want them to do that to one of these pieces. I have enough trouble squeezing them into the allotted space as it is. I'd have a potent thought and then:

Going partying? Then you need I-Kert'n. Get I-Kert'n in the handy six pack. When the symptoms appear after the seventh drink, sniff the grained edge of I-Kert'n to one eyebrow and let it cover the eyeball. Immediately removes all traces of double vision. Eliminates the bother of holding a hand over one eye to see one business instead of two. (CAUTION—I-Kert'n becomes inoperative after the tenth slug and you are stone-blind.) Consult the Yellow Pages.

See what I mean? They might even illustrate these things. A picture of a stomach built like a boiler, a statue with upraised arms, a guy with a black patch over one eye.

Anyway, I don't see how they could make 'em sing.

Now, for a final word before signing off until tomorrow at this same time. Losing money at the races? Then take this tip from ex-jockey G. Hassenpfeiffer. Get his new patented parched board. Instead of going to the track, sit down with the misus, and two of the kids for a friendly session. Saves the cost of two games. If you have more than two kids, knock the rest of them in the head. Available at any Cabason toy shop.

Stay tuned for news of the thrilling Hop-Skotch tournament at Indian Ar-sue and Andrews Road.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Fit for a Queen

As everybody in the International Set knows, the Royal Ascot races begin today in Merry England.

It is a tremendously important social event — a horse who has raced in the Royal Ascot would not dream of taking hay with a horse who has only raced, say, at Santa Anita. ("After all, there's a limit, old man, after all.")

Anyway, all over the world today the people of the Set who cannot be there are thinking about it.

OVER TEA at the Repulse Bay in Hong Kong; in outposts like Sydney, Australia, where one must make do with friande de veau flambe at Caprice, in Chicago and New York and Montego Bay; the Waldorf, the Ritz and all the Sheraton - This-and-That's — the word goes round this day: "Ah, to be in England, now that Ascot's here."

THE MOST important part of this Royal Ascot will be the courting of Princess Alexandra. That seems to be part of the Queen job — Queen Elizabeth has just got Princess Margaret married off. Now she must do something for Princess Alexandra.

Not that Queen Elizabeth will not enjoy the races too. The Queen is a punter. Recently she gave a Royal party for the press. Some 500 newsmen attended.

THE QUEEN talked only about horses. How they were doing at the tracks. So naturally, nobody got any copy out of it except the sports writers.

The Queen has invited two eligible, 29-year-old bachelors to the races: the Duke of Atholl and Viscount Lumley.

"Both are rich," the wire service report adds simply.

WE HAD a long talk about this with some members of the racy Bay Meadows set. One of them was married to a jockey once. But she gave it up and is now cashier at the place we eat Thursday when they serve corned beef.

"Joy was a nice sort of boy," she said, "though it does give you a turn when you realize your husband only weighs 90 pounds soaking wet.

"HE EVEN TOOK me down to Hialeah for the meet. I had to go Greyhound — that was just after Joey put a bundle on Paper Clip who was a sure thing. Only the jockey gave him a rough ride, the little cheater. I heard later he was picked up for burglary and did six months in the county moan-and-wail."

"But with Joey. He could never settle down. That's the way it is with horse people. That and the form sheets all over the floor every morning. Until I said, 'Joey, we just aren't making it. You go your way and I'll go mine.'"

I ASKED HER if it would make any difference if Joey had been a Duke. A rich Duke. "Could be," she said. "A horse-playing Duke with a bundle would not be so nervous as like a jockey Joe - Blow - Go - Blow. On the shorts, too."

"ALSO, I IMAGINE a Royal party is not like those gin-and-tonic binges Joey used to like to go to over at the beach. I told him, 'Honey, you're going to gin yourself right out of the money.' But he said it helped keep his weight down. That's important with a jockey."

"Kid," he told me, "there isn't a loose calory in a fifth of gin. It's when you start lousing it up with vermouth it kills you."

I GAVE HER the qualifications of the Royal suitors: The Duke has 17 other titles — he can change them like suits. He is 6 feet 3. His castle has 29 rooms and he has a Royal right to run his own army.

Viscount Lumley was a proof-reader for Sir John Harding in the Cyprus thing. He has a papa who is loaded.

"NOTHING LIKE a pocketful of ready," agreed our cashier. "But a horse player can run through money. I never forget when we were saving up for the furniture and Joey came home. 'Kid,' he said, 'I got it from the jock. Paper Clip is ready to go.'"

"The money was ready to go," she said. "But Paper Clip stopped midway to eat the chaises."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

TV in the Spotlight

HOLLYWOOD — Next Monday the TV Academy will have its time in the spotlight when they colorcast their 90-minute show announcing their awards. It will emanate from Burbank with one segment coming from New York.

James Brown, so long associated with Rin Tin Tin, is now swinging over to star in the Police Dog Story . . . a feature for this fall release.

And did you know the real name of Maria Callas is Maria Kalogeropoulos???

SOMETHING NEW is to be added with the Barbara Stanwyck Theatre on NBC Monday nights for those who've wondered what Barbara has been up to.

On the heels of CBS programming of public affairs and news on the spot, NBC is taking the dive but deep. They'll be coming up with a 25 per cent higher budget for this category thereby topping CBS. Journey Into Space is the one they're concentrating on now for a late summer release.

TO GIVE YOU an idea of the rising costs of TV time, Anahist is buying just a weekly minute each on NBC's Outlaws and Warner's Roaring Twenties! And Bristol - Myers is buying only the 60 seconds on Father Knows Best and Rawhide.

To would-be actors and actresses: Casting here in Hollywood for a TV spectacular calls for "dancers who must also sing," "singers who must also dance," and "actors who must also sing!"

Zsa Zsa Gabor wants to be the first female astronaut. "I want to meet the man in the moon."

AS A RESULT of Some Like It Hot, we don't know whether Jack Lemmon or Tony Curtis got the busiest. Jack Lemmon just flew in this morning at 4:53 to resume and finish Wackiest Ship in the Army. From this he hopes to get his play, Face of a Hero, on B'way before he does a spy-chase movie in London. The movie Jack is looking forward to is his third for Billy Wilder about a guy celebrity because he's swallowed the world's largest diamond and retains it!

Ernie Borgnine wants to do another butcher story only his wife Katy Jurado, will be the butcher! She won the Mexican film award for it when she did the Mexican version of El Bruto. Now the Borgnines own the rights and will do it here independently.

GINGER ROGERS, who always likes 'em young, was again with Bob Eaton while he's giving her sympathy since her career is temporarily stopped by the writer's strike. Her script is almost finished.

Then there's the Texan who saw Ben-Hur and said: "It's amazing what can be done with so little money!"

No sooner does Tony Franciosa finish Go Naked in the World then he takes off for the summer stock trout of Tennessee Williams' second play of this year, The Night of the Iguana.

A BIT PLAYER in London won a role in Cary Grant's movie, The Grass is Greener, because of his name. Since the movie is about England's landed gentry opening their homes to tourists, the actor with the name, Earl Lord, was automatically in on the sound of his name!

The famous character actor Vladimir Sokoloff is writing his autobiography which includes a 1925 chapter about a Berlin movie with an extra named "fatty" — Marlene Dietrich!

Walt Disney: "Children like to be scared — if they can hold on to the hand of someone they love."

"If the trip now ahead of me were concerned principally with the support of a regime or a treaty or a disputed policy, if it were intended merely to bolster a particular program, if it were intended to achieve a limited objective, such a journey would have no real justification. But this trip is not so concerned, not so intended."

MANY SKELTONS CONFUSE MARILYN

Marilyn Maxwell is the guest star who has to deal with the many Skelton characters — Clem Kaddidhopper, Bolivar Shagnasty, Cauliflower McPugg and Willie Lump Lump — when she tends the switchboard of a telephone answering service in "The Many Skeltons" on "The Red Skelton Show" Tuesday, June 14, (CBS Television Network, 9:30-10 p.m.).

As Esther, Miss Maxwell does her best to keep tabs on the clients of the Weansweryourphone Telephone Answering Service. She must deal with such clients as Clem Kaddidhopper, who is confused by telephone messages left him; with Bolivar Shagnasty, a smart-alec television repair man; with Cauliflower McPugg, as punchy as ever when he finds himself in a phone booth; and with Willie Lump Lump, the happy drunk, who has trouble finding his phone in his apartment.

Red Skelton, of course, plays all of these characters. The third member of the cast is Monty Margetts, who plays Willie's wife. The Skelton Dancers open the show, backed by the music of David Rose and the orchestra. Sherwood Schwartz, Dave O'Brien and Al Schwartz write the show, which is directed by Seymour Berns and produced by Cecil Barker.

Killer Threatens Attorney's Wife

The wife of a young attorney excitedly moves into her new and swanky apartment, but she faces the threat of death when the killer of three policemen enters the apartment and holds her hostage in "A Good Address" on "Walter Winchell File," Tuesday, June 14, 8 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

To Be Back McKay Finds Not 'Paradise'

By RICK DU BROW
UPI HOLLYWOOD WRITER

HOLLYWOOD UPD — Gardner McKay, who has muscles on his muscles, will be back next season on TV's "Adventures In Paradise" series despite a year of ducking critical brickbats and needing about his "pretty boy" looks.

McKay, 6-foot-5 and 200 pounds, maintains he laughs off critics who equate his acting ability with Lasse's — but he has been working so hard at improving himself that he once passed out during a scene.

"THE DIRECTOR was really on my back," he said, "and I fainted. When I came to after a few seconds, I pushed people away, picked up a chair and threw it. Then I fainted again and was put in an oxygen tent."

The brown-haired, 27-year-old bachelor, a native of New York City, also has been at the mercy of gushing women who took too seriously his press agents' claims that he is a combination of Clark Gable and Tyrone Power.

"I WAS ON a Hollywood TV panel show," he recalled blushing, "and a woman asked me now it felt to be a beautiful man. How can you answer a question like that? I just said, 'Aw, cut it out.'"

"In the first place, I'm stoop-shouldered, and in the second place I have big feet. As for that Clark Gable-Tyrone Power stuff, I think it's kind of a pity because I'm obviously not like either of them."

NEVERTHELESS, SAID McKay, his huge publicity buildings—which included the cover story of a national magazine (Life)—carried the ABC show through its first critical rough spots.

"One critic said I had the expression of a death mask of Gary Cooper," he smiled. "But I never thought of quitting. In a way, it's great. It's like being told you can't do something. Then it's like a challenge."

HE IS ALSO a first-rate photographer who, by chance, was aboard the Ile de France when it sped to the rescue of the ill-fated Andrea Doria after its collision with the Swedish ship Stockholm in 1956 — and his pictures were sold to newspapers and magazines throughout the world.

He still earns considerable money from fashion and portrait photography. And, in fact, he entered the acting field only after conquering a stuttering defect.

"I consider myself the luckiest guy in Hollywood," he said.

Wanderlust Goes Deep Into Wilds

Bill Burrud's "Wanderlust" travels deep into the wilds of Canada's British Columbia to a hunting and fishing paradise in "Totem Pole Empire," Tuesday, June 14, 7:30 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

The crew heads up the Campbell River to a land of lakes, valleys and towering pines to one of the greatest fishing spots in the world where the prized Kamloop is caught and the skies are filled with ducks.

Myron Zobel Visits Races

Myron Zobel gets decked out in English finery at some of the famed men's shops in London and then attends the colorful Ascot Races in "London: Ascot Week," Tuesday, June 14, 6:30 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

Television Notes

NEW YORK UPD — It is Mary Martin's fond hope that after she is through with her current Broadway hit, "The Sound of Music," in a year or so she will be able to do the musical version of "Peter Pan" a third time for TV. But the next time it will be recorded on video tape for any future use as desired. This recording process was not perfected when she did the first two performances live.

"Hour of Great Mysteries," a late-season entry that got in three one-hour dramatizations before going off for the summer, is scheduled for nine shows at irregular intervals on NBC next season. One of the entries will be "The Datchet Diamonds," based on the novel by the late Richard Marsh. Stage star Tammie Grimes already has been signed for a leading role.

CBS has assigned the 9:30-10 a.m. (EST) spot next fall to Andy Griffith's new comedy series and will move Agnetha's show out of that spot after its summer re-runs into the 9:30 p.m. (EST) Thursday space.

State's Budget Won't Balance, Says Money Boss

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Finance Director John E. Carr has changed his mind about balancing California's budget in the next two fiscal years.

Carr said earlier that he didn't think it could be done but now he says that he is hopeful.

In a report to Gov. Edmund G. Brown Saturday, Carr gave two reasons for his cautious optimism:

An upswing in economic activity that brought an unexpected $22,700,000 into the state treasury this year. Most of it—a total of $18,800,000—came from a surprise increase in bank and corporation tax receipts.

A new system of allocating funds to the various state departments and agencies. Instead of giving or not giving money to each unit on the basis of its itemized requests, the Department of Finance will make "tentative lump sum allocations."

Crackdown Asked On Mexico-U.S. Prostitution-Deeds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senator Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo.) has called for negotiations between the U. S. and Mexico to crack down on widespread narcotics peddling and prostitution along the 2000-mile border between the two countries.

Hennings issued a statement in advance of publication of the annual report of his Senate Juvenile Delinquency Committee report recommending "bold measures to control the insidious traffic in drugs."

KNUDSEN REPORTS NEW SALES MARK

A new high in sales for the Knudsen Creamery Co. was reported in the Company's 41st annual report issued today.

In the year ended March 31, 1960, total sales for Knudsen were $54,527,553.89 as compared to the previous year's total of $3,199,995.91.

After taxes, earnings were $2,485,336.53, or $2.15 per share of common stock. Earnings for the same period a year ago were $2.29 per share after giving effect to a 5 per cent stock dividend.

CASH DIVIDENDS on common shares totaled $1,362,846.39. Common stock dividends of $1.20 per share in stock were distributed during the year.

In the report to stockholders Th. R. Knudsen, Chairman of the board and Robert E. Osborne, president and general manager, stated, "Our sales and earnings picture is favorable as we close the first year of our fifth decade, and begin the second."

"The continued increase in public acceptance of such dairy products as cottage cheese, sour cream and skim milk serves to indicate a favorable picture in the year ahead."

ICE CREAM, THE most important of the newest additions to our line of products, showed a substantial gain. Other new products, added during the year, have also been well received.

"Increased emphasis is being placed on a program to foster the development and training of the members of our organization to meet the executive and technical needs of the future."

The Knudsen executive also indicated that the future of the company could best be secured by maintaining a program of research that would enable it to serve the needs and cater to the ever-changing food habits of the consuming public to keep pace with the constant evolution toward greater economy in the application of effort in the area of manufacturing, handling and accounting.

Yanks, Braves Get Hot

Hogan Looks Hot as Open Start Nears

Texan Seeking Record Fifth Win In Golfing Classic

DENVER, AP — The shadow of "the Hawk" hung high over the U. S. Open golf championship today — and the little man seeking a record fifth triumph agreed with them.

Ben Hogan admitted that the men who picked him to leave ancient Willie Anderson and the immortal Bobby Jones in his wake could be right.

"I'M PLAYIN' pretty well," the 48-year-old four-time winner from Texas confirmed as he "sliced out" his touch on the putting green at Cherry Hills Country Club where on Thursday he will start his quest for his tie-breaking fifth victory in golfing's "big one."

There is white flecking the hair at Bantam Ben's temples and yet, such is the magic of his touch with the golfing sticks, nobody is selling him short in this fairway jamboree which is about to get underway. Least of all, Bantam Ben.

"WHAT DO YOU mean I'm liable to tire in that second round on Saturday?" he asked with some indignation. "Look up the records, and you'll see that always, and I mean always. I shoot my best round the second time around on Saturday."

Ben is high on the Cherry Hills course, which is a par 35-36-71 of 7,004 yards which, because of the rare altitude in this mile high city with the snow-capped Rockies in the background, gives you 25 to 50 more yards on your drives.

"I'VE PLAYED A lot of opens," said the taut-jawed Texan, "and this is the first course which has been absolutely perfect. The fairways are wider by 15 to 20 yards than any course over which I have played in the Open. They contend, rightfully, that the rough isn't too high, so I've got to figure it will be a low winning score."

Milt Hicks, chairman of the Desert Classic Tournament and past president of the Desert Classic, handed over $2,500 from members of Bermuda Dunes, Indian Wells, Eldorado, Thunderbird, and Tamarisk to help finance the National Golf Day play on the redesigned Firestone course.

Burdette, Turley Winners

By United Press International
The World Series pitching heroes of 1957 and 1958 may be set to hurl the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees back to the heights.

They're Lew Burdette, the toast of Milwaukee in 1957, and Bob Turley, 21-game winner and Yankee Series minute man in 1958, and they're beginning to look like staff aces again after a wretched start this year.

BURDETTE, RELEGATED to relief roles early in the season, scored his third straight win as a starter and raised his season mark to 6-2 Monday night with a 12-5 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

Turley, who was dropped completely from Casey Stengel's pitching plans for a spell, gained his third consecutive victory and increased his record of 4-1 with an 8-4 decision over the Kansas City Athletics.

THE RESULTS OF the only games played in the majors Monday moved the Braves to within 3½ games of the National League lead and the streaking Yankees to within one game of first place in the American League.

Burdette started slowly and Turley finished in somewhat wobbly fashion but their overall performances were nevertheless of key importance to managers Charlie Dressen and the Yankees' Stengel.

BURDETTE ENCOUNTERED a four-run San Francisco outburst in the very first inning featured by a three-run homer by Orlando Cepeda. But he settled down thereafter to wind up with a rout going eight-hitter and the Braves' sluggers did the rest.

Turley, who shut out the Chicago White Sox in his previous start, carried a one-hit shutout into the eighth inning when the Athletics rallied for five hits and all their runs.

NCAA Baseball Finals Rained Out

OMAHA, Neb., AP — College baseball's top teams, already rained out for three days at a cost of $1,500-per-day, hoped to get the NCAA tournament going today.

Minnesota, the powerful Big Ten champion, was to face North Carolina while Boston College was slated against Colorado State and St. John's of Brooklyn was to meet Southern California.

Pacheco Rite Held

NEW YORK, AP — Funeral services were held Monday for Tomas (Tommy) Pacheco, lightweight boxer who died last Thursday, three days after being knocked out in a bout at St. Nicholas Arena.
